Edward J. Cronin
Secretary of the Commonwealth

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Office of the Secretary
State House, Boston 33

December 6, 1957

Miss Zoe Purdon
Town Clerk
Longmeadow, Massachusetts

Dear Miss Purdon:

With reference to the enclosed delayed return of birth, please be advised that the name will have to agree with the evidence submitted. The school record reads "Freda Reddin", which is the way the name will have to appear on the record.

Also you should have proof that the parents were residents of your town at the time of the birth, such as assessors lists or poll lists.

On a delayed return a person cannot take the oath herself. If there is no one available to make the affidavit, if the evidence is satisfactory, it can be accepted without affidavit on the evidence alone under the provisions of Chapter 542 of 1945.

The school record is returned herewith.

Very truly yours,

Arthur J. Hassett

Arthur J. Hassett
Deputy Secretary of State
State Registrar of Vital Statistics

Mrs. Kathryn Vincent
20 Williams St.
Longmeadow, MS 01106

Dear Mrs. Vincent:

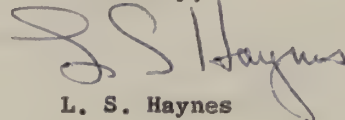

You will find enclosed a Department of State Passport Office form which I have completed to the best of my ability.

A prior search of birth records, in 1942, failed to turn up evidence of a birth certificate for me. In order to join the armed forces at that time, my mother and I obtained a certificate of delayed registration of birth through Jackson, (Michigan) County Courts. The passport office advises they cannot accept this record, as it does not emanate from my birth state. They further advise that the above record would be acceptable if a Certificate of No Record were submitted to them from your office.

To the best of my knowledge, I was born at 702 Longmeadow St., and baptised in the Episcopal Church on Longmeadow St., close to 7 Farmington Ave., where our family resided from about 1923 to 1927.

Any assistance you might give me in the form of an official document stating that there is no record of my birth in Longmeadow, forwarded to the address on the attached form would be sincerely appreciated.

Cordially,

L. S. Haynes

P.S. A copy of delayed registration is enclosed for your convenience.
